

Constitution Day

On September 17 of each year or the first day back to Delaware Learning Institute of Cosmetology will hold a day dedicated to the Constitution of the United States. The curriculum outlines for all programs contain information on the signing of the Constitution.